

Casa De Soul Review

By Lia

This is officially my favorite Chicago boutique. The Casa de Soul experience is like stepping into the ultimate studio apartment whose owner has the ultimate closet. I tried on several dresses by their in-house designer, Cyndi Chan, who happened to be in the store. I had the unique experience of learning the details of each garment as I tried them on. Cyndi is extremely talented and loves to share her ideas about accessorizing her clothing. Both the saleswoman and Cyndi were so easy going and made buying my dress fun. The store is packed with designer pieces that you will never see on anyone else, yet won't break the bank.
