Dear Friends,

The Chicago Antique Market and Indie Designer Fashion Market will present the hottest vintage clothing and decor to makeover shoppers' wardrobes and homes for the fall season Saturday, Sept. 29 and Sunday, Sept. 30 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on W. Randolph Street. Featuring more than 200 antique dealers selling a wide range of antiques and vintage collectibles, the indoor/outdoor Chicago Antique Market has earned an international reputation as one of the finest in North America.

The Indie Designer Market features top independent designers in Chicago who specialize in blending old traditions and new designs to create original pieces. Antique shoppers can take a break from browsing yesterday's treasures and check out today's trendsetting designs. The September market features Cyndi Chan, nickWaraksa's Wounded Line, Lara Miller, KrFleye Designs, Objets d'Envy, 2007 by Brigid Murphy, Phizza's P3 Clothing, TongueTied, Trois Chemise, Juliet Jewelry, Inc. Sassy Designs and more.

Kate Shifrin of Kate Shifrin Style Consultants, Inc. and "Come Flea with Me" will bring her fashion expertise to the Chicago Antique Market. On Saturday of the September market, Kate will offer on-site vintage makeovers to shoppers free of charge. It's in with the old and with the new, as Chicago native Kate shows shoppers how to combine vintage and trendy to create the hottest fashions for fall. Shifrin is a personal shopper, stylist and flea market diva with more than 20 years experience in the industry. With the mission to make individual style accessible and shopping a stylish service, Shifrin and her team of fashionistas offer clients an exclusive level of service in any city including personal shopping, fashion consulting and wardrobing, the wildly popular closet "merge and purge," as well as a variety of style consultations for the home. On several weekends throughout the year, Shifrin and her "Come Flea With Me" crew take a busload of earlybirds to catch local flea market finds. The trip includes outfitting and expert advice on style, shopping and vintage furnishings and accessories. The September Chicago Antique Market is their fashion fall destination.

It's FALL FASHION PREVIEW - check out this gorgeous Balmain couture from Siren Vintage, just one of the delectable assortment of vintage and indie wearables! Visit the new House of Vintage Ultra Luxe Antiques Salon featuring the best of the best from our dealers.
